RE: Congratulations!

Dear [redacted]

Congratulations on competing in the 2024 BC Winter Games! Your participation and your two, well-deserved gold medals in Badminton showcase the dedication and hard work you've poured into the sport. The entire community is incredibly proud.

The BC Winter Games celebrate the best of British Columbia's emerging athletes, and you truly embodied the spirit of the event—a dedication to athletic excellence combined with a love for sport and community. Your accomplishment is a testament to your unwavering commitment to all the event has to offer, a medal-worthy display of skill and determination, and an inspiration to those who hope to follow their athletic dream.

I am honoured to have such a talented and driven athlete representing our area. We all eagerly await witnessing your continued growth and success.

Congratulations once again!

Warm regards,

---
